Anxiety has the highest prevalence among Behavioral/Emotional Needs: 676 out of 1315 episodes with an actionable rating in the 6 thru 20 age group – 51.4% – indicated a problem with anxiety.

Psychosis has the lowest prevalence among Behavioral/Emotional Needs: 21 out of 1315 episodes with an actionable rating in the 6 thru 20 age group – 1.6% – indicated a problem with psychosis.

43.9% of actionable ratings on anxiety decreased by at least 1 point between the two CANS assessments.

Percent of episodes improved on 50% or more of items: 61.4%
Impact on Functioning • 0 thru 5

Risk Behaviors • 0 thru 5

New domain added in CANS 2.0

New items added in CANS 2.0; data are not shown because these items do not have a CANS pair