Sample intro. ➔

“Normally you would be [getting a citation OR booked into jail] today on this offense. There may be an alternative if you are eligible. Have you heard of the LEAD program? It offers a one-time arrest diversion, which means that instead of [getting a citation OR going to jail], you would be released from here to speak with a LEAD social worker that will assist you with resources, such as housing, job training, and addiction treatment services when you are ready for it. LEAD operates through ‘harm-reduction,’ which means that there are no set expectations for your participation. They accept you where you are at. The only requirement is that you meet back up with a LEAD rep. within the next 30 days. If you do,

Sample intro.

1. Review the charges and what would be the normal response
2. Discuss LEAD as an alternative and the need to be assessed by a DPH clinician
3. Explain that the program will link them resources (assistance with shelter, job training, addiction treatment services)
4. LEAD is harm reduction and there are no expectations for their participation, except that they complete an assessment (If LEAD eligible offense ONLY)
5. If they have additional charges they will need to work with their case manager to develop a plan or they risk the DA filing a bench warrant
6. Advisement for Transportation
