seven counties including San Francisco. The California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) will have oversight over the program. The policy goal is to make MTM a permanent Medi-Cal benefit for seriously ill persons. Food is Medicine offers a Spectrum of Services including:

- Prescribed MTM for people with a serious diagnosis who cannot cook for themselves
- MTM for people diagnosed with acute or chronic illness
- Healthy food for people who are malnourished or food insecure

Ms. Madsen also discussed the Medi-Cal MTM Pilot Program is a medical nutrition intervention for high utilizing Medi-Cal beneficiaries with a diagnosis of congestive heart failure (CHF). The intervention is 12 weeks in duration for discharged Medi-Cal patients who were admitted due to CHF and have a history of being a high utilizer of health care services and/or likely at risk for readmission within 30 days. The goals is to reduce hospital and emergency department readmissions. The intervention includes:

- Medically tailored meals
- Medical Nutrition Therapy, and
- Information and referral services

5. Legislative update: Becky Gershon, SFM Food Bank

Becky Gershon provided an overview of eight pending bills in the state legislature that relate to food security and that the FSTF supported. Of those five of the eight are still active. Of note: Cal-Fresh encouraged legislation to increase 10 million dollars for senior meals. The law that restricts Cal Fresh benefits from those receiving SSI may change soon. St. Anthony’s has a template of a letter of support for this change on their website.

Research AB 3033 and SB 1275. Report back to FSTF for decision to support.

6. Update on FSTF Budget Request, Anne Quaintance

Anne noted the budget was announced on June 1st, and it was unclear exactly how much money is budgeted for food security. She stated that she will be working to add back moneys that may have been cut from the budget. Anne also noted that:

- Seven members of the BOS have signed on to the FSTF Reauthorization.
- Members are encouraged to attend the BOS meeting on June 18th to provide public comment on the budget, and she will put together a handout with talking points on food security.

7. Update of FSTF Strategic Planning, Anne Quaintance

Anne announced that members will soon receive a survey what they believe the direction of the FSTF should be. Watch your email.
