About the San Francisco Food Security Task Force

The San Francisco Food Security Task Force (FSTF) advises the San Francisco Board of Supervisors on food security in San Francisco. Established in 2005 by the Board of Supervisors, the Task Force recommends citywide strategies, including legislative policies and budget proposals, to address hunger and increase food security in San Francisco. The FSTF tracks vital data on hunger and food security, including demographic information to understand the scope of need in general and for specific vulnerable subpopulations; data on utilization of federal food assistance programs such as CalFresh and school meals; and data on participation in nonprofit food and meal programs. The FSTF membership comprises representatives from 15 public and community-based entities in San Francisco.

Food Security means that all people at all times are able to obtain and consume enough nutritious food to support an active, healthy life. Food Insecurity exists when the ability to obtain and prepare nutritious food is uncertain or not possible.

Food Security Rests on Three Pillars - The following three elements, adapted from the World Health Organization's pillars of food security, are used as a framework for evaluating food security in San Francisco.

- Food Resources - Sufficient financial resources to purchase enough nutritious food (CalFresh, WIC, SSI)
- Food Access - Access to affordable, nutritious and culturally appropriate foods (from food pantries, meal programs, food retail)
- Food Consumption - Ability to prepare healthy meals and the knowledge of basic nutrition, safety and cooking (usable kitchens, nutrition education)
- 1 in 4 San Francisco residents (28%) is at risk of food insecurity due to low income (below 200% of poverty), and may struggle to attain and prepare enough nutritious food to support basic physical and mental health.
