Wu Yee Children’s Services is a non-profit child and family services agency for low-income families throughout San Francisco, many of whom are recent immigrants. Wu Yee supports the improvement of child development services for San Francisco families through their childcare Resource and Referral Program. Wu Yee also offers a child development program based on the Head Start model.

---

2002 Traffic Safety Project

Contact: Deanna Rossi
Award Amount: $25,000
(415) 391-1355
deanna@wuyee.org

Wu Yee organized parents of children enrolled at Wu Yee Children’s Services in Chinatown and the Tenderloin to become active members of a parents’ committee on child pedestrian safety. The parent’s committee held community forums in the Chinatown and Tenderloin neighborhoods to discuss child pedestrian safety issues. As a result, parent’s committee created a prioritized action plan on child pedestrian safety, which will be distributed to appropriate city agencies and elected officials.

---

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety through the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.