The mission of the Good Samaritan Family Resource Center is to assist immigrant families access services, ease their transition into San Francisco, develop self-sufficiency, and participate constructively in the community. Good Samaritan Family Resource Center focuses most on newly arrived immigrant families, who are most in need. They also provide support services such as education, recreation, information and referral services. These services support the entire family and help build safe, engaging environments that benefit the whole community.

Good Samaritan Family Resource Center will develop and incorporate DUI prevention information into a wide range of existing programs and activities, including community meetings, educational programs, and regular meeting with sponsored soccer team members and their families. In addition, they will host a Traffic Safety Fair for the Southeast Mission area to increase DUI prevention awareness in the community.

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety through the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.
