Presenter Bios

Mikail Ali is a commander of police for the San Francisco Police Department. He is completing his 22 year with SFPD. He is currently assigned to the Special Operations Bureau with a responsibility for transportation related policing in San Francisco.

Rochelle Dicker, MD is Associate Professor in Residence of Surgery and Anesthesia in the Division of General Surgery at SF General Hospital, the Director of the San Francisco Wraparound Project, and Co-Director of the San Francisco Injury Center.

Gillian Gillett is the Director of Transportation Policy in the office of Mayor Edwin M. Lee.

Ryan Greene-Roesel is a Senior Transportation Planner with the San Francisco County Transportation Authority, serves on the interagency Vision Zero Steering Committee, and provides staff support to the Vision Zero Committee of the SFCTA Board.

Chema Hernández Gil is a Community Organizer at the SF Bicycle Coalition. His background is in engineering and he has been an active organizer on community issues both here in San Francisco and abroad for over a decade. He leads the SF Bicycle Coalition advocacy work in the eastern part of San Francisco, including SoMa, the Mission and the Bayview and manages the Community Reclaimed Bicycle Program, benefiting transit-dependent San Franciscans.

John Knox White works for the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency, where he works on mobility and safety issues, supporting people in living safe, multimodal lifestyles. He is the Vision Zero Education Subcommittee chair and is launching a pedestrian safety campaign this summer.

Timothy Papandreou is the Director of Strategic Planning & Policy for the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency. Timothy is a recognized expert, change agent and leader with over 15 years of experience in transportation and land-use planning, design, project management and operations, and is Co-Chair of the San Francisco Vision Zero Task Force.

Seleta Reynolds works for the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency, where she leads three teams in Livable Streets. Seleta serves on the Transportation Research Board Pedestrian and Bicycle Committees and the WalkScore Advisory Board. She is a past president of Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals. Previously, Seleta worked for Fehr & Peers and as the bicycle and pedestrian coordinator for Oakland.

Nicole Schneider, MPH, MCP, is the Executive Director if Walk San Francisco, the City's pedestrian advocacy organization. Walk SF works to make the streets safer for walking through policy, systems and environmental changes, so that our city is healthier and more livable.

Ana Validzic, MPH, has been working on pedestrian and traffic safety issues at the SF Department of Public Health for over 12 years. She currently manages the SF Safe Routes to School Program and sits on the Vision Zero Task Force.

Megan Wier, MPH is an Epidemiologist for the San Francisco Department of Public Health’s Environmental Health Section where she develops and applies innovative approaches to using health data and evidence to inform safe, sustainable and equitable transportation planning and policy in collaboration with local communities and government agencies. Megan is a Co-Chair of the San Francisco Vision Zero Task Force.