SUMMARY OF THE SFGH CLINICAL PRACTICE GROUP

I. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

The Chancellor of the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) through the Dean of the School of Medicine at UCSF (UCSFSOM) established the San Francisco General Hospital (SFGH) Clinical Practice Group (CPG).

The CPG has authority to negotiate contracts and to manage all third party health services provided by members of the CPG contracting on behalf of the UCSFSOM-based Departments at SFGH (“SFGH Departments”).

II. CPG ROLE AND PURPOSES

The CPG has the following roles and purposes:

A. To act as the agent through which the membership and SFGH Departments enter into and administer health care service agreements with third party payment entities, including but not limited to indemnity insurance carriers, health maintenance organizations, employee benefit trusts and other health care finance and delivery mechanisms, and excluding those contracts covered by the Affiliation Agreement.

B. To negotiate contracts with third party entities jointly with SFGH and the Department of Public Health (DPH).

C. To engage in other contract and market related activities to promote the practice interests of the membership.

D. To develop the ability to respond promptly and effectively to market opportunities and developments.

E. To coordinate with San Francisco General Hospital (SFGH) contracting authorities regarding appropriate third-party payer arrangements.

F. To promote the clinical practices of the membership and SFGH Departments through centralized planning and marketing efforts.

G. To engage in contracting activities compatible with the education, clinical, research, and service programs and the specific health services, facilities and programs of the UCSF School of Medicine (SOM), and consistent with the missions of SFGH and the San Francisco Department of Public Health (DPH).

H. To achieve administrative efficiencies, particularly in centralized billing and coordination of patient care contracts, and provide a forum for effecting clinical efficiencies through improved data review and case management.
I. Anything not explicitly delegated to the CPG remains the domain of the SFGH Departments, the Vice Dean, and/or the faculty.

III. CPG MEMBERSHIP AND PARTICIPATION

A. CPG is a distinct administrative unit within the UCSF SOM with delegated authority to enter into contract agreements on behalf of the membership with third party payers. Participation in CPG contracting arrangements does not affect the terms and conditions of a member's employment. All net revenue derived from professional services performed by members through CPG contract arrangements for third party payers, in excess of CPG's operating expenses and other necessary reserves, shall be distributed through SFGH Departments in accordance with faculty practice and compensation arrangements and the UCSF SOM Clinical Compensation Plan.

B. In order to become a member or to participate in CPG contract arrangements, all practitioners must be faculty of UCSF, either paid or without salary, and must enter into a written CPG Memorandum of Participation in a form approved by the CPG Board and must abide by all rules and regulations adopted by the CPG.

IV. CLINICAL PRACTICE GROUP BOARD

The authority to govern, manage and administer and to establish operating strategies, policies, rules and procedures governing CPG's operations shall be vested in the CPG Board and in the CPG Executive Committee, acting in accordance with University of California policies.
