

Our Children, Our Families Council

Ken Epstein PHD LCSW
Health Commission Presentation
October 18, 2016

Overview of OCOF

- Created when the voters of San Francisco passed Proposition C, the Children and Families First Initiative, in Nov 2014
- Council works to align efforts across the City and County, School District, and the community
- Goal is to improve outcomes for children, youth and families in San Francisco, with an emphasis on those with the greatest needs

OCOF Council Members

Co-chaired by Mayor Ed Lee and Superintendent Myong Leigh and includes:

- 13 department heads from the City & County of San Francisco;
- 13 leaders from the San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD);
- 14 community representatives appointed by the Mayor, including students, parents, and transitional aged youth.

Working Groups: over 100 individuals actively participate in various working groups to move the initiative forward.

OCOF Deliverables Year 1

- 1) Outcomes Framework: To establish collective priorities; align efforts; and use common measures of success to track our progress.
- 2) 5-Year Plan: To identify strategies that align and coordinate the services to children and families provided by City departments, SFUSD, and community partners to achieve the goals outlined in the Framework.
- 3) Data sharing: To establish systematic data-sharing between the City and the District.
- 4) Services inventory: To create an online “one stop shop” for all citywide services.

Outcomes Framework

Outlines the five major goals we want all children, youth, and families to reach:

A. Live in safe and nurturing environments

B. Attain economic security and housing stability

C. Are physically, emotionally, and mentally healthy

D. Thrive in a 21st Century learning environment

E. Succeed in post-secondary and/or career paths

Outcomes Framework

GOALS

Children, youth, and families, especially those most in need, meet the following goals...

A. Live in safe and nurturing environments

B. Attain economic security and housing stability

C. Are physically, emotionally, and mentally healthy

D. Thrive in a 21st Century learning environment

E. Succeed in post-secondary and/or career paths

MEASURES OF SUCCESS* We will know if we are making progress by tracking these proxy measures...

*We recognize that some measures align with multiple goals, but attempted to organize them according to the best-fit. Definitions of the measures are in the subsequent pages.

A1. Feel safe in neighborhood

A2. Justice system involvement/ incarcerated parents

A3. Child maltreatment

A4. Feel engaged and connected

B1. Self-Sufficiency

B2. Stably housed (not homeless or in overcrowded conditions)

C1. Healthy births (birth after 37 weeks of pregnancy)

C2. Healthy bodies

C3. Oral health (without dental cavities)

C4. Mental well-being (without symptoms of depression)

C5. Caring adult

D1. High-quality early care and education settings

D2. Kindergarten, middle school, and high school readiness

D3. Regular school attendance

D4. Reading, Math, Language Arts, and Science proficiency

E1. High school graduation

E2. College degree or certificate

E3. In school or working

E4. Career pathway participation

5-Year Plan

- This first 5-Year Plan focused on strategies for improving collaboration and alignment in the citywide system of support.
- Plan included recommendations for process strategies (collective impact strategies)
- Proposed the creation of working groups for each of the 5 goal areas in the Outcomes Framework

When we're aligned, we're not bringing in the golden nugget from outside San Francisco, but we're seeing what we have internally and are able to implement that in ways that are sustainable and don't require ongoing investments.

-City stakeholder

5-Year Plan

- Plan was developed by Staff with guidance from 5-Year Plan Working Group
 - » Partner Advisory Sessions (April 25 and May 5)
 - » Online Survey (May 9-May 19)
- Plan was presented and unanimously accepted by the Council on May 26

Data Sharing

- Charter mandated data-sharing between the City and District
- Data Working Group launched March 30
 - » Co-Chaired by John Burke (SFUSD) and Joy Bonaguro (Mayor's Office)
 - » Group continues to meet every 4-6 weeks
 - » 23 official members representing City, District and community

Services Inventory

- Charter mandated citywide inventory of publicly-funded services (including state and federal)
- Long term vision:
 - » Create a city-wide, information sharing database that is accurate, timely, reliable, and user-friendly and centralizes all services for families, youth, and children
 - » Collaborate on a city-wide approach
 - » Help low-income families discover engaging, low-cost activities
 - » Help SFUSD social workers find activities for students

Services Inventory

Pilot: San Francisco 20016 Summer Activity Guide

- » Draft digital summer activity guide launched
- » Goals:
 - Build trust in sharing data
 - Work through technical glitches
 - Lessons learned for implementation of long-term strategy
- » Key partners: SFUSD, DCYF, Library, Rec and Parks, BMAGIC, YMCA
